WESTPHALIAN HERITAGE SOCIETY

Rosalyn Breitenwischer, Manchester, Michigan

Numerous Washtenaw County families of German descent trace their ancestors to the German province of Westphalia. Anyone who has done this would want to consider membership in the Westphalian Heritage Society. The aim of this organization is to perpetuate the heritage of Westphalians, internationally, through the preservation and promotion of cultural, historical, genealogical ,and educational exchanges among members. The Society is headquartered in Westphalia, Missouri. Membership spans the globe, although it is predominantly composed of United States and German residents.

For the genealogist, the Society offers the possibility to connect with a current day person or place that leads one to information on ancestors. The Society maintains a family name interest list of its members. It also tracks towns in the province that are of interest to members, as well as the United States cities where Westphalian ancestral emigrants settled. The membership directory, of course, consists of a large percentage of German surnames.

Since forming in 1990, the Society's activities have been many to carry out it's goals. They range from German group tours, sponsorship of student exchange programs, and announcement of family publications available for purchase, to information on ordering items from the Christkindesmarkt (German Christmas market) of Rothenberg, Westphalia. The Society also reports on events in the various United States towns named Westphalia. Seven states boast a Westphalia - Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, and Texas. Michigan's Westphalia is twenty-five miles northwest of Lansing. Established in 1836, it is considered to have been the second German settlement in Michigan.

Individual membership in the Society is only $10.00 per year and includes a newsletter. Their address is; Westphalian Heritage Society, Inc., P.O. Box 244, Westphalia, MO 65085.
